"I've been using Thayers Slippery Elm for years. I don't leave home without them. As soon as my throat is feeling dry, I reach for my Slippery Elm. I can go on stage free of worry about delivering my songs. Thayers Slippery Elm is the best friend a singer could have."

"There are only 2 things I need on stage each night, my guitar and Thayers Dry Mouth Spray. When you tour 300 days out of the year, your throat, just like any muscle gets tired. If I dissolve a couple of Thayers Slippery Elm Lozenges 10 minutes before I go on, I know that I will be warmed up and while fighting through a set, sometimes I need something to keep my throat moist. That is when I use the spray. I love Thayers, because they are a family company with great people. They know how to treat their artists."

-JT Woodruff, Lead Vocalist Hawthorne Heights

"Ya'll are the best!"

-Diana DeGarmo, American Idol Finalist, Broadway Actress

"There's nothing in the world quite like Thayers' products. With the rigors of recording or performing, an artist needs to protect and preserve his or her vocal cords and vocal durability. By using Thayers Slippy Elm Lozenges and Dry Mouth Spray, I've been able to do both. These addictingly tasty products have allowed me to sing, speak, and perform for far longer than I've ever been able to in the past. Looking for a simple fix for a complicated problem? Get Thayers."

"My throat is my most valued possession, without it I cannot do what I love more than anything in the world. Until I found Thayers Dry Mouth Spray and Slippy Elm Lozenges I would thrash my voice so bad I could hardly maintain on the road. Since I've started using this stuff in correlation with proper vocal warm-ups I have been able to maintain a healthy and strong singing voice without a problem. It's amazing, this is what I've been looking for my whole life. Thank you Thayers!"

-Wil Francis, lead singer Aiden

"Their Dry Mouth Spray keeps your mouth lubricated, which also helps me as a speaker. And their Slippy Elm Lozenges coat and heal the membranes of the throat and mouth."

"For eighteen years with over 4,000 vocal clients, we at Jan Smith Studios have consistently endorsed and recommended Thayers products to our clients, and have continued to get nothing but positive results in return. Obviously, I see no need to fix something that ain't broke."

-Jan Smith, Vocal Producer and Voice Coach for Usher, Rob Thomas and Matchbox Twenty, India.Arie, Diana DeGarmo, Sevendust, Ciara, Edwin McCain, etc.

"A pinch of love, and a dash of perfection...has to be secret ingredients of Thayers products! Beyonce used them at the Oscars, Jada Pinkett-Smith took them on the road when she opened for Brittany Spears, and Fantasia, in her noted Summertime performance, let each note ring as the cherry flavor rested on her palate! I've tried them, and my clients have too...and we at The Vocal Corner Store endorse both the product, and the integrity of those who created it! Thanks for a product that works!"

-Nick Cooper, CEO of The Vocal Corner Store and Vocal Coach for Beyonce, Vanessa Williams, Mario, Chante Moore, Kenny Lattimore, Cheetah Girls, Rein, Jada Pinkett-Smith, Jacob Luttrell, Jeff Lewis, etc.

Steven Memel

"The voice is an amazing instrument! It can do things that boggle the mind. But when it's not working or is compromised, Wow!... can that be frustrating, and in many cases... costly. The kind of high-level singers and actors I work with can't afford down times. And when they're in trouble they need all the help they can get. I recommend Thayers. I've experienced first hand how much they can help. Whether your voice is hoarse and tired, needs a pick-me-up or you really need help "getting through", Thayers Slippery Elm Lozenges and Dry Mouth Sprays are the answer. Try them. You'll be glad you did!"

-Steven Memel, voice and performance coach. Maroon 5, Melee, Big City Rock, Taryn Manning, Brittany Murphy, Lauren Bacall, Mariel Hemingway

"Of all the dry mouth sprays and lozenges on the market I like Thayers the best because they're natural and they work. I use them myself, I recommend them to my students and like my vocal method, Thayers helps singers sound their best on stage and in the recording studio even in demanding circumstances."
